CASTELLANO, DAVID B	IDENTITY THEFT

THE INFORMATION BELOW IS CONFIDENTIAL - FOR USE BY AUTHORIZED PERSONNEL ONLY

On 07/25/16, at 1606 hours, I was summoned to the Elmwood Park Police station for an identity theft report. Upon my arrival, I spoke with the complainant, David B. Castellano, m [REDACTED] who told me the following in summary:

David said an unknown subject opened a line of credit with an online ordering service company called fingerhut.com. David said he has been receiving a bill in the amount of $450.00 for products purchased (DVD player, radar detector). David said he receives catalogs from the company, but never opened a line of credit through them and never placed an order.

David said he contacted fingerhut.com fraud service and advised them he never placed an order with their company. The company advised David the order was shipped to his residence on 04/04/16. David advised the company he did not authorize the purchase and never received any products from their company.

David said his credit score has dropped due to the fraudulent activity and wanted the incident documented. David said he will be in contact with Trans Union to get his credit score corrected.

I provided David with the report number.
