THE INFORMATION BELOW IS CONFIDENTIAL - FOR USE BY AUTHORIZED PERSONNEL ONLY

Vehicle was located parked behind 2806 75th Av blocking garages and the alleyway. A check of the vehicle did not reveal any signs of tampering. Based on the newly fallen snow around the vehicle and the time the snow started falling, it appeared the vehicle had been there for quite some time. The vehicle was issued applicable citations and a tow was ordered. Thirty minutes into the vehicle investigation, and while waiting for the tow, a male subject who identified himself as the owner of the vehicle walked up and asked me, "Do you have something for me?" Surprised, I asked him what and he told me, "Tickets. Do you have tickets for me." I said yes and explained they were on the windshield. The owner then began to walk away. I asked him why the vehicle was parked there and he told me he got distracted and forgot it was there. I asked him if he was going to move it and he told me yes. A few minutes went by and he then moved it to a proper parking place. I cancelled the tow, completed my report and returned to duty.
